

Anti-Racism/Discrimination Justice Organizing

African Alliance of Rhode Island

$4,000

807 Broad Street, Rm 121, Providence, RI 02907

www.africanallianceri.org

Contact: Julius Kolawle

401-331-5535; jokolawole@gmail.com

The African Alliance of Rhode Island (AARI) promotes unity within the African Community in Rhode Island, advocate for the African rights in RI, educate the American public about Africa, and facilitate linkages between Americans and Africans. Today, the AARI's dedicated volunteers and consultants of serve low-income people of all origins and ethnicities, including refugees and immigrants. Haymarket funds will go to support AARI and Farmers Markets in Food Desert Communities in Providence.

Boston Art & Music Soul (BAMS) Fest

$10,000

1452 Dorchester Ave, 4th Fl, Dorchester, MA 02122

www.bamsfest.org

Contact: Catherine T. Morris

857-207-9313, info@bamsfest.org

Boston Art & Music Soul (BAMS) Fest strives to break down racial and social barriers to arts, culture and music for underserved communities and artist of color across Greater Boston. Boston Art & Music Soul Festival is a platform that seeks to recognize and amplify the contributions of black arts and music to the City's history and culture. Haymarket funds will support general operations for BAMS fest.

CTCORE-Organize Now!

$10,000

P.O. Box 8897, New Haven, CT 06532

www.ctcore-organizenow.org

Contact: Camelle Scott

203-824-0574, camelle@ctcore-organizenow.org

CTCORE-Organize Now! is dedicated to building communities of racial justice freedom to dismantle institutional racism in the state of Connecticut through a three-pillared movement building strategy and combine local base building with issue-focused statewide network building. Haymarket funds will provide general support funding to continue their movement building of Community Organizing, Community Building, and Training on their Racial Justice Platform.

Equity Leaders Fellowship

$4,000

http://snhahec.org/ELF.cfm

Contact: Jazmin Miranda

603-674-5299, jazmiranda2@gmail.com

The Equity Leaders Fellowship of New Hampshire leaders of color to train community leaders of color to make a positive impact and to grow the leadership development pipeline. ELF creates a supportive environment to explore the challenges of race equity and social justice issues with a network of engaged fellows/alumni, mentors, community advisors, and faculty with strong personal and professional relationships. Haymarket funds will be used for general operating support.

Essex County Community Organization$6,50074 South Common Street, Lynn, MA 01902www.eccoaction.orgContact: Alexandra Pineros Shields781-592-6167, apineros@eccoaction.org*

Essex County Community Organization is a multi-faith network that prioritizes building relationships across race and class, using the pain caused by white capitalist systems to drive the movement for justice. Haymarket funds will be used to build power with principles centered around community organizing, relationship building, leadership development and non-violent direct action.

Radical Advocates for Cross-Cultural Education (RACCE)$4,00014 Stanford Ave, Waterbury, CT 06704www.racce.netContact: Robert Goodrich203-597-7456, rgoodrich@racce.net*

RACCE challenges the systems of oppression by advocating for culturally competent educational practices inside schools alongside parents, students, and community members. Haymarket funds will be supporting used to provide operating support for RACCE's Youth Community Organizing Cooperative (YCOC) and neighborhood action research teams.

The Root Social Justice Center$10,00028 Williams Street, Brattleboro, VT 05301www.therootsjc.orgContact: Angela Berkfield802-254-3400, therootssjc@gmail.com*

The Root Social Justice Center is a physically and financially accessible community space for social justice organizing and is a hub for racial justice organizing. The Root prioritizes People of Color leadership and shifting resource to People of Color - led racial justice work. Haymarket funds will provide general operating support.

SISTA Fire$10,00010 Davol Sqaure, Suite 100, Providence, RI 02903sistafireri.orgContact: Ditra Edwards202-498-7071, ditra.edwards@sistafireri.org*

SISTA Fire envisions a state where womxn of color thrive economically, physically, and spiritually, and are leaders in decision making policies that impact our communities. SISTA Fire builds movement infrastructure for social, political, and economic transformation that centers the leadership of womxn of color ages 18-30, advances their visions of change, and builds their capacity as leaders. Their current campaign is focused on gathering birth stores of womxn of color, making Women & Infants Hospital accountable to the community, and engaging them around policy and practice changes to yield better Black Maternal health outcomes. Haymarket funds will be used to grow membership and increase opportunities for their leadership.

Step Up New London$10,000

PO Box 1672, New London, CT 06320

stepupnewlondon.org

Contact: Maegen Parrott

860-574-1242, stepupnewlondon@gmail.com

Step Up New London is a black & brown parent-led organization that organizes to support the voice, power, and actions of oppressed people while strengthening a local movement for change. Haymarket funds will be used to support their continued work in advocating for education for change.

Immigrant and Refugee Rights/ Organizing

ALL Farmers$4,000

PO Box 3338, Springfield, MA 01101

Contact: Hannah Spare

413-342-0064, hannah@allfarmers.world

www.allfarmers.world

All Farmers supports food autonomy and cultural preservation in refugee communities through work with autonomous cooperatives of refugee and immigrant farmers to address their specific needs and make farm ownership possible for more communities. The organization aims create a just food system, with land and resources to determine their food sources and culture. Haymarket funds will support All Farmers in addressing systemic land access through policy work and broad partnerships to increase the availability of affordable and secure land opportunities for farmers of color.

Alliance to Mobilize and Organize the Resistance (AMOR)$6,500

669 Elmwood Ave, Box 13, Providence, RI 02907

www.amorri.org

Contact: Catarina Lorenzo

401-632-1491, cata@prysm.us

The Alliance to Mobilize and Organize the Resistance (AMOR) envisions a world where the community has the power to ensure community sovereignty, families do not fear being separated due to their documentation status, and black and brown communities are protected against police violence and immigration raids. AMOR envisions responding to incidents of individual and state violence together by building a culture of resistance to defend communities. Haymarket funds will be used to support the network of services for the community, including an emergency hotline for rapid response support.

Brazilian Women's Group$4,000

697 Cambridge Street, Suite 106, Brighton, MA 02135

www.verdeamarelo.org

Contact: Heloisa Maria Galvao

617-202-5775, mulherbrasileira@verdeamarelo.org

The Brazilian Women's Group (BWG) was started in 1995 by a group of Brazilian immigrant women of various backgrounds and occupations to encourage women in their community, to stand up for their rights in the United States. BWG aims to promote political and cultural awareness with the goal of empowering Brazilian women and the Brazilian community in the Boston area by spreading information, legal assistance, and psychological support to the community. Haymarket funds will be used to continue BWG's movement against systemic criminalization and dehumanization of Immigrants.

Center to Support Immigrant Organizing

$6,500

89 South St; Suite #203, Boston, MA 02111-2670

<http://www.csioboston.org>

Contact: Luz Zambrano

617-742-5165, lzambrano@tsne.org

The mission of the Center to Support Immigrant Organizing is to support and help develop the work of individuals, groups, organizations, and communities that organize immigrants around issues that affect their lives. The organization helps immigrants in the forefront of community and workplace to develop power and leadership not only to succeed in their immediate context, but also to contribute to the effort to build a more just and democratic society. Haymarket funds will provide general operating support.

Dominican Development Center

$6,500

42 Seavern Ave, Boston, MA 02130

www.dominicandevelopmentcenter.org

Contact: Magalis Troncoso Lama

617-524-4029, magatroncoso@msn.com

The Dominican Development Center focuses on organizing immigrant workers, advocating and promoting leadership development to address the root cause of racism, oppression, and abuse in immigrant communities. The organization works not only with Dominican immigrants, but also immigrants in Latin American and Caribbean communities to educate and promote racial justice in our own communities. Constituents are low-income families and young/middle-aged adults who participate and work directly in the decision-making process. Haymarket funds will support their general operations

Maine Community Integration

$6,500

265 Lisbon Street, Suite 1, Lewiston, ME 04240

www.mcimaine.com

Contact: Fowsia Musse

207-576-6329, fowsiam@hotmail.com

Maine Community Integration (MCI) is a non-profit organization promoting and supporting African immigrant communities in and around Lewiston, ME. MCI seeks to enhance and improve the opportunities of immigrants in American culture through education, advocacy, and social change empowerment. Haymarket funds will be used to sustain the social vitality and cultural vibrancy of New-Mainers' heritage by strengthening family life, uplifting human services, and organizing meaningful and humility trainings for educational institutions, health service providers, and local law enforcement.

Maine Immigrants' Rights Coalition

$10,000

24 Preble Street, Suite 306, Portland, ME 04101

www.maineimmigrantrights.org

Contact: Mufalo Chitam

207-517-3404, mufaloc@maineimmigrantrights.org

Maine Immigrants' Rights Coalition strives to improve the legal, social, and economic conditions experienced by Maine's immigrants by enhancing their lives while strengthening Maine through advocacy, information sharing and collaboration both through and among our member organizations. Haymarket funds will provide general operating support.

Maine Immigrant & Refugee Services

$10,000

PO Box 7149, Lewiston, ME 04243

www.meirs.org

Contact: Rilwan Osman

207-344-5136, rilwan@meirs.org

Maine Immigrant and Refugee Services (MIRS) unites immigrants and refugees with their new Maine communities by providing the skills, support, and opportunities necessary to succeed. Haymarket funds will provide general operating support.

Sustainable Livelihoods Relief Organization

$6,500

PO Box 7255, Lewiston, ME 04243

www.slromaine.org

Contact: Mohamed Dekow

207-344-7590, dekow.slro@gmail.com

Sustainable Livelihood Relief Organization (SLRO) develops the capacity of immigrants to become productive members of society and integrate successfully into the labor market as both employees and business owners in order to raise the standard of living, strengthen the people's resilience to adversity, and create a supportive environment for community well-being. Haymarket funds will be used to help carry out their mission and support the immigrant community of Lewiston-Auburn, ME.

Unidad Latina en Accion

$10,000

37 Howe Street, New Haven, CT 06511

www.ULAnewhaven.org

Contact: John Jairo Lugo

203-606-3484, admin@ulanewhaven.org

Unidad Latina en Accion (ULA) is a grassroots organization that builds immigrant power to fight for racial and economic justice using direct action, legal action, movement building, and social justice media, and creative arts. ULA is focused on transforming two systems where undocumented immigrants experience human rights violations: the workplace and immigration / criminal injustice system. Their education and media campaigns use radio, theater, art, parades, and more to educate the community about their rights, analyze the root causes of oppression, and foster dialogues between Latinx and other oppressed communities. Haymarket funds will be used to continue their current work and expand the movement against deportation and mass incarceration.

Women Encouraging Empowerment Inc. (WEE)

$6,500

50 Walnut Street P.O. Box 13, Revere, MA 02151

www.weewomen.org

Contact: Olga Tacure

781-284-4251, olga.tacure@weewomen.org

Women Encouraging Empowerment was founded in 2010 by a group of immigrant women and allies (organizers and activists) in response to the social marginalization of refugees and immigrant women in the neighborhoods of Revere, Winthrop, Chelsea and East Boston. WEE's program model focuses on the promotion of immigrant women's leadership and the creation of sustainable socioeconomic practices through education, community organizing anti-racism principles, and values strengthened by dialogue and events in a community space that protects and promotes immigrant women's rights. This year, Haymarket funds will be used to address the organization's Immigrant Women's Leadership Initiative.

Indigenous Rights Organizing

American Friends Service Committee Wabanaki Program

$6,500

PO Box 406, Perry, ME 04667

www.afsc.org/office/perry-me

Contact: Denise Alvtar

207-214-6383, wabanakidd@pioneerwireless.net

The American Friends Service Committee is a Quaker organization that promotes lasting peace and justice. AFSC's mission is grounded in anti-racism and anti-oppression values. AFSC's staff members come from the communities where AFSC works and supports efforts to organize and advocate building Native grassroots movements that seek to address problems in the Native communities of Maine. Haymarket funds will be used to uncover, acknowledge, and redress a history of systemic repression, racism, and abuse of Native people.

Indigenous People's Network

$6,500

6 Sherman Ave, Auburn, MA 01501

www.ipneast.org

Contact: Chief George Spring Buffalo

508-736-7423, chiefgeorgespring@gmail.com

Indigenous Peoples Network and Pocasset Pokanoket Land Trust collaborate to educate farming groups, environmental organizations, higher education institutions, state and local governments, local healthcare providers, and foundations in order increase indigenous cultural education and land sovereignty. They aim to restore and teach Native Aboriginal ways of life that will re-establish the mind, body, and spirit in their work for Land Sovereignty and environmental climate balance. Haymarket funds will provide general operating support.

Visioning B.E.A.R. Circle Intertribal Coalition, Inc. (VBCIC)

$6,500

PO Box 1286, Greenfield, MA 01032

www.visioningbear.org

Contact: Strong Oak Lefebvre

413-961-9167, visioningb.e.a.r@gmail.com

Visioning B.E.A.R.(balance, equality, and respect) Circle Intertribal Coalition works to prevent domestic, sexual, and all forms on interpersonal violence in the Northeast and nationally through a process of indigenization using circle process. VBCIC seeks to promote a non-hierarchical approach to prevention initiatives that address the healing of both those who are harmed and those who commit harm. Haymarket funds will be used to support the interruption of violence through community building transformative justice circle practices that supports reciprocal, equitable relations for all being.

Social / Educational / Economic Justice Organizing

ARISE for Social Justice

$10,000

38 School Street, Springfield, MA 01105

www.arisespringfield.org

Contact: Tanisha Arena

413-734-4948, tanisha@arisespringfield.org

Arise for Social Justice works to educate, organize, and unite low-income people to know what their rights are, to stand up for their rights, and to achieve those rights. The organization also aims to educate the community at large as to achieve the common goal of social justice for all by promoting involvement in the electoral process and helping to develop self-esteem and methods to fight oppression in all forms. Haymarket funds will be used to support their generation operations.

Boston Education Justice Alliance

$10,000

42 Seaverns Ave, Boston, MA 02130

www.bostonedjustice.org

Contact: Ruby Reyes c/o Resist

617-767-7829, bejaruby@gmail.com

Boston Education Justice Alliance (BEJA)'s core pursues justice for students, parents and teachers in the Boston Public School system by building and sustainable leadership of parents in partnership with an already-existing leadership structure of students and teachers. By engaging all communities in Boston, BEJA is committed using parent, youth, teacher, and community voices to build power through unity. Haymarket funds will be used for general operating support.

George Wiley Center

$6,500

32 East Avenue, Pawtucket, RI 02860

www.georgewileycenter.org

Contact: Camilo Viveiros

401-338-1665, camiloviveiros@gmail.com

The George Wiley Center is a statewide group actively committed to community organizing for the purpose of creating social, racial, and economic justice through changes in public policy. The organization is currently mobilizing to bring back a Percentage Income Project to Rhode Island to stop the utility shut off crisis in low-income communities. By building people power, their goal is to make energy affordable and accessible for all communities across Rhode Island. The group is led by and brings together people who are most impacted: people of color, people on fixed incomes, the unemployed (including people coming out of prison), seniors, and people who are differently abled. This year Haymarket funds will be used to support general operations.

Maine Center for Electronic Music

$4,000

25 Howard Street, Portland, ME 04101

www.mcem207.weebly.com
Contact: Derek Jackson
207-318-5230

The Maine Center for Electronic Music (MCEM) supports artists from economically, geographically and culturally marginalized communities. Haymarket funds will be used to provide general operating support for this emerging group that releases dance music culture from the grips of addiction, dead end production and stigma by creating opportunities for development and presentation.

Muslim Justice League $10,000

745 Atlantic Ave, 8th Floor, Boston, MA 02111
www.muslimjusticeleague.org
Fatema Ahmad C/O WeWork
857-217-2930, fahmad@muslimjusticeleague.org

Muslim Justice League (MJL) was founded by four Muslim women in Boston in response to a pressing need for local education, organizing and defense of human rights by the communities most targeted under national security pretexts. Haymarket funds will provide operating support for MJL's to continue to challenge criminalization of communities in the domestic "War on Terror", build resilience and organize against Countering Violent Extremism framework in MA that worsens profiling of Muslims and other "suspect communities" and chills dissent and access to social services.

Lawrence Dream Network $6,500

530 Broadway Street, Lawrence, MA 01841
www.thedreamnetwork.org
Contact: Stacy Seward
978-494-0760, info@thedreamnetwork.org

Lawrence Dream Network is a network of individuals who provide culturally competent training, mentoring, and coaching to youth and young adults, parents, and professionals in Lawrence. Lawrence Dream Network is challenging this structure by focusing on coalition building and allyship to foster empowerment among individuals impacted by social inequities. Haymarket Funds will be used for general operating support.

Neighborhood Birth Center $4,000

5 Taylor Terrace, Mattapan, MA 02126
www.neighborhoodbirthcenter.org
Contact: Nashira Baril
781-696-4961, nashirab@gmail.com

Neighborhood Birth Center aims to be Boston's first independent and freestanding birth center, that will aim to improve birth experiences and outcomes across communities for generations through comprehensive midwifery care in a setting rooted in relationship and community. The center will offer a full range of prenatal, pregnancy, and birth care options in a luxurious facility that includes three birthing suites designed for maximum comfort and safety. Haymarket funds will be used to provide general operating support.

The Fang Collective $10,000

545 Pawtucket Ave #107, Pawtucket, RI 02860
www.thefangcollective.org
Contact: Nick Katkevich
401-559-6218, nick@thefangcollective.org

The FANG Collective is an intergenerational multi-racial organization that leads direct action campaigns to create a more just world, working across issues to bring communities together to enact powerful change. The organization is committed to building resistance to white supremacy, capitalism, and colonization. In 2020 FANG is prioritizing its Shut Down ICE campaign - challenging collaborations between ICE and law enforcement in MA; and the Tooth and Nail project which provides healing space and land access to people of color and indigenous people. Haymarket funds will be used to support these ongoing campaigns.

Worcester Roots Project

$6,500

4 King Street, Worcester, MA 01610

www.WorcesterRoots.org

Contact: Addison Turner

508-343-0035, addison@WorcesterRoots.org

Worcester Roots is a collective of youth and adult organizers whose mission is to create opportunities for economic, social, and environmental justice. The collective works in communities, sprouting up cooperatively run and green projects that build toward a vision of our neighborhoods being safe for living, working, and playing. Their work revolves around 1) social justice youth development, leadership training and mentoring, 2) incubation of mission-led worker cooperatives that create sustainable jobs in Worcester, MA and 3) promoting Solidarity Economics in cross-movement spaces. Haymarket funds will be used to support their goals to empower young people to take leadership roles in organizing our community and building a new economic system rooted in solidarity, anti-oppression, and democracy.

Youth Organizing

Beantown Society at Spontaneous Celebrations

$6,000

45 Danforth St., Jamaica Plain, MA 02130

www.spontaneouscelebrations.org

Contact: Tara Venkataraman

617-524-6373, tara.venkataraman@gmail.com

Beantown Society unites youth across race, class, culture, and neighborhood to end youth violence by transforming youth oppression, neglect, rejection, and depression due to classism, sexism, heterosexism, and adultism. The organization supports transformation at the individual, community, and societal levels. Haymarket funds will be used to support their afterschool youth leadership development program and violence prevention programming for middle school students at the Curley School.

I Have a Future

$10,000

14 Cushing Ave, Dorchester, MA 02125

www.ihafma.org

Contact: Keturah Brewster

857-333-8985, kbrewster@mcan.us

I Have a Future is a coalition of youth organizers and allies based in Boston, that builds power with transformational leadership development, direct public action, and policy change. They fight for increased access and opportunity to employment through the state budget. Haymarket funds will support general operations to seek systemic change around racially targeted practices of sentencing and policing through juvenile justice reform, and allocation of funds for imprisonment as opposed to job training.

Pa'lante Restorative Justice$10,000

*Holyoke High School
500 Beech Street, Holyoke, MA 01040
www.palanteholyoke.org
Contact: Luke Woodward
510-585-3664, lwoodward@hps.holyoke.ma.us*

Pa'lante Restorative Justice Program works to build youth power and dismantle the school-to-prison pipeline in Holyoke and beyond. Haymarket funds will go to support the Alumni Fellowship Program, a powerful leadership pipeline for graduates of our program.

Revere Youth in Action (RYiA)$9,000

*PO Box 13, Revere, MA 02151
Contact: Sandy Wright c/o WEE
617-360-1893, revereyouthinaction@gmail.com*

Revere Youth in Action (RYiA) builds youth power through organizing, direct education justice services and coalitions for social change. Haymarket funds will be used to strengthen the leadership of youth organizers and support the organizational development.

Summer of Solutions Hartford$6,500

*PO Box 260157, Hartford, CT 06106
soshartford.wordpress.com
Contact: Jennifer Roach
860-539-7231, roach.jenniferlynn@gmail.com*

Summer of Solutions Hartford is building a just and sustainable food system. With their Urban Farming Internship, they are preparing young people to take on this challenge. Haymarket funds will be used to support their strategic planning process, focusing on becoming an anti-racist organization, and to host a second city-wide anti-racism training.

Students for Education Justice (SEJ)$10,000

*157 Church Street, 19th Floor, New Haven, CT 06510
www.students4edjustice.org
Contact: Hillary Bridges
610-247-9373, info@students4edjustice.org*

Students for Education Justice cultivates self-pride in young BIPOC (Black people, Indigenous people, and people of color) and drives racial and educational justice through their youth-led, intergenerational organizing. Haymarket funds will provide general operations support

Student Immigrant Movement$10,000

*9A Hamilton Place, Boston, MA 02105
www.simforus.com
Contact: Reina Guevara
617-331-3560, rguevara@simforus.com*

The Student Immigrant Movement (SIM) is a MA-based statewide immigrant youth-led organization that fights for the liberation of the undocumented community through a network of immigrant youth organizers in high-density immigrant communities. The organization works with youth 13-26 to provide political education, leadership training, protection, guidance, mentorship, and safe healing spaces. Haymarket funds will provide general operating support.

Youth Justice and Power Union

$10,000

*The City School
614 Columbia Road, Dorchester, MA 02125
www.yjpu.org
Contact: George Lee
617-276-5651, georgeleejr617@riseup.net*

Youth Justice & Power Union (YJPU) is a community grassroots organization that centers the voices of Black and Brown youth in Boston. With a focus on leadership development and community building through mentorship, political education, campaign organizing, and base-building, YJPU builds collective power in an effort to address systemic issues, at the root, happening in communities and confront them through organizing and direct action. Haymarket funds will provide general operating support.

Community / Housing Justice Organizing

Access Cooperative

$4,000

*50 Moroney Road, Grafton, MA 01519
www.accessne.coop
Contact: Xiomara Paulino
401-497-8492, info@accessne.coop*

Access Cooperative bridges the communication and cultural divides within their community in order to ensure all community members can access essential services, participate fully in community systems and affairs, and exercise their voice to determine community direction. Haymarket funds will provide general operating support.

Chinatown Community Land Trust

$10,000

*28 Ash Street, Boston, MA 02111
Lydia Lowe c/o CPA
617-259-1503, chinatownclt@gmail.com*

The Chinatown Community Land Trust (CCLT) works to stabilize the future of Chinatown as a neighborhood for working class families and the elderly. Chinatown Master Plan of CCLT works to keep community control of land, development without displacement, permanently affordable housing, and shared neighborhood spaces, consistent. Haymarket funds will be used for general operating support.

Direct Action for Rights and Equality

$10,000

*340 Lockwood Street, Providence, RI 02907
www.daretowin.org
Contact: Christopher Samih-Rotondo
401-351-6960, csamihrotondodare@gmail.com*

Direct Action for Rights and Equality (DARE) is a membership-based community organization that organizes to help low-income families in communities of color gain social, political, and economic justice. Haymarket funds will support DARE in organizing projects: Behind the Walls and Tenant and Homeowner's Association.

Lynn United for Change Empowerment Project $10,000

112 Exchange Street, Lynn, MA 01901

www.lynnempowerment.org

Contact: Isaac Simon Hodes

781-346-9199, isaac@lynnempowerment.org

Lynn United for Change Empowerment Project is a grassroots social justice organization in the diverse, working class city of Lynn, MA. Housing is a basic human right, and the organization seeks to support Lynn residents threatened by housing insecurity to resist eviction, to fight for systemic change, to stop gentrification-centered development that will displace working class people, and to join in the broad struggle for social and economic justice. Haymarket funds will provide support for general operations.

Olneyville Neighborhood Association $6,500

122 Manton Ave, Unit 611, Providence, RI 02909

www.onaprovidence.org

Contact: Eduardo Sandoval

401-228-8996, onaprovidence@gmail.com

Olneyville Neighborhood Association promotes solidarity among low-income households, immigrant communities, and people of color communities within Olneyville. They strive to provide programs that help these community overcome obstacles imposed on them due to their stance in the U.S. of their current situation. Haymarket funds will be used to support their goals to achieve social and economic justice.

Springfield No One Leaves /
Nadie Se Mude $10,000

143 Main Street #103, Springfield, MA 01103

www.springfieldnooneleaves.org

Contact: Rose Webster Smith

413-426-3172, rose@springfieldnooneleaves.org

Springfield No One Leaves is a grassroots member-led organization based in Springfield, MA that organizes residents most directly impacted by the housing crisis and economic inequality (namely women, people of color, and working-class and low-income people) to build collective power, defend against displacement and win long-term community control over land and housing. Through direct action campaigns, leadership development and political education, the organization builds community solidarity while addressing everyday issues, building collective analysis and resistance to fight to change the root system that created those issues. Haymarket funds will support their general operations.

Worcester Interfaith $4,000

111 Park Avenue, Worcester, MA 01609-1613

www.worcesterinterfaith.net

Contact: Isabel Gonzalez-Webster

781-913-4904, isabel@worcester-interfaith.org

Founded in 1993, Worcester Interfaith (WI) is a multi-issue, multi-racial broad-based community organization, comprised of 26 dues-paying institutions that reflect the religious, racial, ethnic, and geographic diversity of the city. Worcester Interfaith has built bridges between congregational and community leaders and across religious, socio-economic, racial and ethnic boundaries to accomplish much in areas of jobs, neighborhood improvements, public safety, education and youth, and draws attention to the disproportionate ways in which these issues affect people of color and those low-income and/or newcomer status. Haymarket funds will be used to support their general operations.

Workers' Rights/Human Rights Organizing

Brockton Workers Alliance

$4,000

68 Legion Parkway, Brockton, MA 02301

Contact: Isabel Lopez

617-306-1365, isabel.brocktonefforts@gmail.com

The Brockton Workers Alliance (BWA) is a non-profit organization that builds the power of immigrant workers and communities of color through education, advocacy, and organizing for collective action. Haymarket funds help organize and mobilize the Brockton Values Platform to push local government for transparency and accountability, and eradicate the oppression immigrant communities of confront over family separation and jobs funding opportunities.

Centro Comunitario de Trabajadores (CCT)

$10,000

1532 Achushnet Ave, New Bedford, MA 02746

www.cct-newbedford.org

Contact: Lisa Maya Knauer

508-979-1961, cctnbm@hotmail.com

CCT is a workers' center serving immigrant and low-wage workers in New Bedford, MA, and surrounding regions founded, staffed, and governed by immigrant workers. The center addresses workers' complaints; focuses on workplaces with a history of exploitative, unsafe conditions; and targets temporary agencies as businesses use them to hide the use of undocumented workers. Haymarket funds will be used to empower workers to act to obtain justice and dignity at work and in their community.

Fuerza Laboral - Power of Workers

$10,000

131 Clay Street, Suite 101, Central Falls, RI 02863

www.fuerza-laboral.org

Contact: Heiny Maldonado

401-725-2700, heiny@fuerza-laboral.org

Fuerza Laboral builds the power of worker by organizing to end labor exploitation, educating and training workers in their rights, developing new community leaders, taking direct action against injustices, and working with state and regional coalitions in order to create a large impact. Haymarket funds will continue to support their five main areas of the organization: Wage Theft, Power Network incubator Project, Injured Workers, Popular Education, and Justice for immigrants and working-class movement.

Lynn Worker Center

$10,000

P.O. Box 187, Lynn, MA 01903

Contact: Julio Ruiz

857-277-4072, lynnworkercenter@gmail.com

Lynn Worker Center is a non-profit organization dedicated to provide a safe place for all workers disregarding race, economic status, or migratory status, to empower them to take action and stop unsafe working conditions, exploitation, and to improve their quality of life. Haymarket funds will provide general operating support.

Anti-Sex and Human Trafficking Organizing

Survivor Speak USA

$6,500

1 Walker Street, Apt. 48, Portland, ME 04102

www.survivorspeakusa.org

Contact: Dee Clarke

207-408-1778, info@survivorspeakusa.org

Survivor Speak USA (SSUSA) is a Maine-based, survivor-led organization working to end sex trafficking and sexual exploitation by centering the experience, healing, voices, and leadership of survivors. SSUSA organizes survivors of sexploitation, prostitution and sex trafficking to steer the anti-trafficking movement to address the oppressive roots of racism, poverty and misogyny; and educates and engages law enforcement, members of the judicial system, the Department of Health and Human Services, legislators, providers and the community. Haymarket funds will be used to further their mission to provide education, advocacy and mentoring for survivors and the communities that serve to ensure radical and sustainable change, and to end sexploitation in Maine.

Environmental Justice Organizing

Land and Water Sovereignty Project

$9,000

100 Hartford Ave, Providence, RI 02909

<https://www.facebook.com/pg/WaterIsLifeRI/posts/>

Contact: Cristina Cabrera

401-450-1486, criscabreraeph@gmail.com

The Land and Water Sovereignty Project believes that water is an inalienable human right and should not be commodified. The organizers oppose Mayor Elorza's proposal to monetize and privatize Rhode Island's water. Haymarket funds will be used for general operating support.

Sunrise Boston

$4,000

<https://www.facebook.com/SunriseBoston/>

Contact: sunrisemovementboston@gmail.com

The Sunrise Movement is a group of climate activists, who imagine a world where climate change is stopped by transforming the whole economy. Haymarket Funds will provide general operating support for the Boston hub.

LBGTQ Rights Organizing

Out in the Open

$4,000

PO Box 1685, Brattleboro, VT 05302

www.weareoutintheopen.org

Contact: HB Lozito

503-747-9495, HB@weareoutintheopen.org

Out in the Open connects rural LBGTQ people to build community, visibility, knowledge, and power. Their work focuses on racial justice and rural LBGTQ folks' role in the struggle for collective liberation. Haymarket funds will support of political education, mutual aid, and movement building work.