

2013
Sustaining Grants

3rd EyE Youth Empowerment, Inc.

$5,200

Jennifer DeBarros
28 Union Street, New Bedford, MA 02740
Tel: 508-910-2260
Email: Jennifer.3rdeye@gmail.com
Web: www.3rdeyeunlimited.com
3rd EyE's mission is to engage and empower young leaders to positively transform their community through organizing, events, music, media and art. They utilize the positive elements of Hip Hop culture as a medium to spark the attention of at-risk, disenfranchised, and disengaged youth to provide opportunities for leadership and artistic development, educational achievement, and civic engagement. Haymarket grand funds will be utilized to hold forums addressing youth violence, school unresponsive, and other social complexities as well as the production of media tools to raise awareness.

Adbar Ethiopian Women's Alliance

$3,200

Seble W. Argaw
1151 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, MA 02138
Tel: 617-234-8981
Email: Adbar@ethiopianwomen.org
Web: www.ethiopianwomen.org
Adbar Ethiopian Women's Alliance's mission is to enhance the awareness level of Ethiopian and other marginalized women to understand the systemic gender based oppression, to examine the existence of many levels of oppression among ourselves, as well as policy and culture. They address these issues through community organizing, education, and advocacy in collaboration with organizations that have shared objectives and goals. Haymarket funds will go toward general operating costs.

African Immigrants Association

$5,200

Abdullahi M. Abdulle
276 Lisbon Street, Lewiston, ME 04240
Tel: 207-740-5598
Email: abdulle12abdullahi@gmail.com
The mission of the African Immigrants to eliminate barriers that hinder the African Immigrant community to fully participate in society (i.e. racism & sexism). Haymarket funds will go towards ensuring the ability of the program to reach and raise awareness in the community.

American Friends Service Committee - Wabanaki Program

$9,000

Denise Alvarar
PO Box 409, Perry, ME 04667
Tel: 207-214-6383
Email: wabanakidd@pioneerwireless.net
Website: <http://afsc.org/category/topic/wabanaki>
American Friends Service Committee's (AFSC) Wabanaki Program has been working for over 16 years on building grassroots movements that seek to address issues in the Native communities of Maine. For over 50 years the AFSC has worked in Maine with the four tribes of the Wabanaki Confederacy empowering community members and building leadership. Haymarket funds will go towards designing and implementing participatory training for Wabanaki youth on their history and the effects of generational trauma.

ARISE for Social Justice

$9,000

Michaelann Bewsee
467 State Street, P.O. Box 5423,
Springfield, MA 01101
Tel: 413-734-4948 Email: michaelannb@gmail.com
Website: <http://ariseforsocialjustice.blogspot.com>
The mission of ARISE for Social Justice is to educate and organize low-income peoples of Springfield to fight for their rights. The organization works to provide housing rights, reduce hate and homophobia, and protect environmental rights. Haymarket funds will go towards general operating costs for current campaigns including creating a citizens review board for the Springfield police, and encouraging the city of Springfield to develop a progressive housing policy.

Asian American Resource Workshop (AARW)

$5,200

Allistair Mallilin
42 Seaverns Ave, Boston, MA 02130
Tel: 617-942-8178 Email: allistair@aarw.org
Website: www.aarw.org
The mission of the Asian American Resource Workshop is to work for the empowerment of the Asian Pacific American community to achieve its full participation in U.S. society. Since its founding in 1979, AARW has worked with a uniquely pan-Asian lens in providing programming to the Greater Boston Asian American community around arts, activism, and education. Haymarket funds will go towards general operating support.

Beantown Society at Spontaneous Celebrations $5,200

George Lee

45 Danforth Street, Jamaica Plain, MA 02130

Tel: 617-524-6373

Email: george@spontaneouscelebrations.org

Website: www.spontaneouscelebrations.org

Beantown Society's mission is to unite youth in Boston across race, class, culture, and neighborhood to end youth violence by changing youth's oppression, neglect, rejection, and depression into youth power. They support youth to develop as leaders, run community organizing projects addressing racism and violence, and lead citywide movement-building work to end youth violence and implement change. Haymarket funds will go towards general operating support for these programs.

Boston-area Youth Organizing Project $9,000

Najma Nazy'at

565 Boylston Street, 5th Floor, Boston, MA 02116

Tel: 617-262-1895

Email: imnajma@gmail.com

Website: www.byop.org

The mission of Boston-area Youth Organizing Project (BYOP) is to organize low-income youth of color towards their ultimate goals of improving their lives, schools, and communities. BYOP works to create change in public schools and districts to meet the priorities of Boston youth and support youth led community change. The organization works to provide youth with necessary skills, promote an understanding of community organizing, provide leadership opportunities, and support young people to build community partnerships among adult interactions. Haymarket funds will go towards general operating support.

Boston Mobilization $3,200

Christopher Messinger

30 Bow Street, Cambridge, MA 02138

Tel: 617-492-5599

Email: chris@bostonmobilization.org

Website: www.bostonmobilization.org

Boston Mobilization supports young people to make systems-level change using grassroots community organizing. They focus on bridging diverse groups to expand their impact with special attention on anti-racism and anti-violence work. Haymarket funds will go towards supporting general operating costs.

Boston Tenant Coalition $3,200

Kathy Brown

14 Beacon St; Suite #606, Boston, MA 02108

Tel: 617-423-8609

Email: kathy@bostontenant.org

Website: www.bostontenant.org

Boston Tenant Coalition (BTC) is a coalition of grassroots neighborhood groups, advocacy organizations, and community development corporations who work together to organize and serve tens of thousands of Boston's low-income families who are under attack by the hot real estate market. The mission of BTC is to ensure that good housing is a right for all of Boston's residents. Haymarket funds will go towards cultivating Latino leadership and organization in public and private housing.

Brazilian Women's Group $5,200

Heloisa Maria Galvao

697 Cambridge Street, Brighton, MA 02135

Tel: 617-202-5775

Email: mulherbrasileira@verdeamarelo.org

Website: www.verdeamarelo.org

The Brazilian Women's Group's (BWG) mission is to promote the empowerment of Brazilian women and the Brazilian community in the Boston area. They work toward this goal with community organizing and education, cultural events, political participation and the promotion of economic self-sufficiency. Haymarket funds will go towards engaging the entire community in a campaign for just and comprehensive immigration reform, including hiring a full-time immigration organizer.

BRIDGE: Berkshire Resources for the Integration of Diverse Groups and Education $9,000

Gwendolyn Hampton VanSant

17 Main Street, Suite 2, Lee, MA 02138

Tel: 413-274-1001

Email: gwendolyn@multiculturalbridge.org

Website: www.multiculturalbridge.com

The mission of Multicultural BRIDGE is to promote mutual understanding and acceptance among diverse groups serving as a resource to both local institutions and the community at large. They serve as catalysts for change through collaboration, education, training, dialogue, fellowship and advocacy. Haymarket funds will go towards general operating support for BRIDGE to respond to local issues of racism, intolerance, and social injustice.

Center for African Heritage $5,200

Dawud Ummah

PO Box 331, Portland, ME 04112

Tel: 207-807-8350

Email: dawud.ummah@maine.edu

Website: www.cfah.me

Center for African Heritage's mission is to serve as the hub for progressive activities that promote collaboration among peoples from the African Diaspora and our neighbors. They strive for excellence and equity in education, entrepreneurship, cultural preservation and celebration of the human spirit. Haymarket funds will support their community-based sustainable agricultural initiative located in Greater Portland, Maine, which work to increase self-reliance of families facing limited food access.

Center to Support Immigrant Organizing $5,200

Luz Zambrano

89 South St; Suite #700, Boston, MA 02111-2670

Tel: 617-742-5165

Email: csio@tsne.org

Website: www.niaas.org

The mission of the Center to Support Immigrant Organizing is to support and help develop the work of individuals, groups, organizations and communities dedicated to organizing immigrants around issues that affect their lives. They help immigrants in the forefront of community and workplace struggles develop their power and leadership. Haymarket funds will go towards implementing the Network of Immigrants and African American in Solidarity (NIAAS), a community-based initiative to build solidarity through dialogue, relationship-building, outreach and education.

Centro Comunitario de Trabajadores $7,500

Adrian Ventura
265 River Street, New Bedford, MA 02744
Tel: 774-961-8283 Email: cctnbm@hotmail.com
Website: www.facebook/centrocomunitariotrabajadorescct
Centro Comunitario de Trabajadores is a member driven workers; center of Central American immigrants. Centro Comunitario de Trabajadores addresses wage justice, workplace safety and dignity, and community advocacy. Haymarket funds will go towards general operating support.

Cleghorn Neighborhood Center / United Neighbors of Fitchburg $9,000

Joana Dos Santos
2-18 Fairmount Street, Fitchburg, MA 01420
Tel: 978-342-2069
Email: Joana_d@cleghorncenter.org
Website: www.cleghorncenter.org
Cleghorn Neighborhood Center/United Neighbors of Fitchburg's mission is to promote and maintain a spirit of community among Fitchburg diverse peoples and neighborhoods, by fostering equitable economic, educational, health, cultural, social, and recreational opportunities, unifying Fitchburg's varied immigrant roots, past present, and future. Funds from Haymarket will go towards organizing and building power for disenfranchised youth and adults of color to address inequities and injustices. Issues surrounding organization include racial equality, education, health, anti-violence, and immigration.

Community Change, Inc $9,000

Alexia Loman
14 Beacon Street, Rm 605, Boston, MA 02108
Tel: 617-523-0555
Email: alexia@communitychangeinc.org
Website: www.communitychangeinc.org
Community Change Inc's (CCI) mission is to promote racial justice and equity by challenging systemic racism and acting as a catalyst for antiracist education and action. With a special focus on involving white people in understanding and challenging systemic racism, CCI strives to make visible the foundation and ongoing role racism plays in white structure and impact of institutions that shape all of our lives. Funding from Haymarket will be used for general operating support.

Community Economic Development Center of South Eastern Massachusetts $3,200

Cornin Williams
1285 Achushnet Ave, New Bedford, MA 02746
Tel: 508-979-4684 Email: corinncedc@gmail.com
Website: www.cedc-sm.org
The Community Economic Development Center of Southeastern Massachusetts, Inc (CEDC) is a community development corporation located in New Bedford, MA committed to local economic and social justice. CEDC spearheads the Bus Riders Untied/Pasajeros Unidos (BRU) organizing campaign to improve service, accountability and transparency of the Southeastern Massachusetts Regional Transit Authority (SRTA). Haymarket funds will continue to support the part-time Bus Rides United organizer.

Direct Action for Rights and Equality $5,200

Fred Ordonez
340 Lockwood Street, Providence, RI 02907
Tel: 401-351-6960 Email: fred@daretowin.org
Website: www.daretowin.org
Direct Action for Rights and Equality (DARE) organizes low-income families in communities of color for social, political and economic justice. Haymarket funding will provide general support of DARE's organizing work and movement building activities, especially in our work to organize people affected by the prison industrial complex to reform and fight the cycle of incarceration in our community and to organize tenants and homeowners to fight big banks' practice of eviction due to foreclosure.

Dominican Development Center $9,000

Magalis Troncoso Lama
42 Seaverns Ave, Boston, MA
Tel: 617-524-4029 Email: magatroncoso@msn.com
Website: dominicancenter.net
The mission of the Dominican Development Center is to develop and empower Dominican immigrants and immigrants representing all Latin American and Caribbean communities to improve their quality of life by promoting and organizing around issues that might impact the community, including but not limited to current laws, legal procedure, education, immigration reform, and human rights. Haymarket funds will be used for general operating support.

Dorchester People for Peace $2,500

Mike Prokosch
41 A Brent Street, Dorchester, MA 02124
Tel: 617-282-3783 Email: mikeprokosch@verizon.net
Website: www.dotpeace.org
Dorchester People for Peace is building a multi-racial peace movement in and around Dorchester, working against wars abroad and domestically, and working to move money from the pentagon to our communities. Haymarket funds will be utilized to deepen our coalition building, prevent savage cuts to vital services, and work with others on economic justice campaigns that create jobs in the community.

Downtown Workers Center $5,200

Alisa La Sotnik

9 Hamilton Place, Suite 2A, Boston, MA 02108

Tel: 617-539-6757

Email: info@downtownworkerscenter.org

Website: www.downtownworkerscenter.org

The Downtown Workers Center empowers workers, mainly young, people of color, partly immigrant, mostly part-time, in Boston's retail & food service sectors. They take up wages, hours, unemployment, discrimination issues as they demand respect. They also work with community-based organizations because our workplace challenges are connected to those in our schools & communities. Funds from Haymarket will support a re-emergence as a staffed organization and their "Know Your Rights" campaign.

Encuentro Diaspora Afro $3,200

Yvette Modestin

Suite 12-MAC

31 Health Street, Jamaica Plain, MA 02130

Tel: 617-650-2475 Email: lapolitica@msn.com

Website: www.diasporaafro.org

Encuentro Diaspora Afro is a grassroots organization that is dedicated to dismantling racism, improving the lives of women and men of African descent, and creating a just society for all. Through community education and training they mobilize Afro-Latinos into action, empower youth, and promote racial healing. Funding from Haymarket will support the HER program at English High School, development of a Speaker's Bureau for those who have completed HER, and organize racial healing sessions and community education events.

English for Action $5,200

Cristina Cabrera

PO Box 29405, Providence, RI 02909

Tel: 401-421-3181 Email: ccabreraefa@gmail.com

Website: www.englishforaction.org

English for Action's (EFA) mission is to create opportunities for the self-empowerment of immigrant families in Rhode Island so that they can become main actors in their own liberation from oppressive structures which systematically deny their voice and participation. This mission is implemented through language education, community building, and leadership development. Funding from Haymarket will support their Transportation Justice, Labor Rights and Economic Justice, and Community Health and Safety initiatives.

Environmental Justice League of RI $3,200

Julian Rodriguez-Drix

1192 Westminster Street, Providence, RI 02909

Tel: 401-383-7441 Email: julian@ejlri.org

Website: www.ejlri.wordpress.org

The mission of the Environmental Justice League is to build power in the communities most affected by environmental hazards by developing leaders to take action to promote safe and healthy environments for all. Haymarket funds will strengthen the EJ League's youth programs and leadership development, and support the Green DRIVE veggie oil bus.

Ex-Prisoners and Prisoners Organizing for Community Advancement $9,000

Cornine Rhodes

5 Pleasant Street, 3rd Floor, Worcester, MA 01609

Tel: 774-578-2688

Email: corinne@exprisoners.org

Website: www.exprisoners.org

Ex-Prisoners and Prisoners Organizing for Community Enhancement's (EPOCA) mission is to stop the increasing growth of incarceration nation and to reduce crime and recidivism by creating opportunities and equality for those who have paid their debts to society. At the heart of their project lies their ongoing goal to build their base and develop leaders who will promote for the seeds of change. Funding from Haymarket will go towards their multi-campaign initiation Re-routing the Prison Pipeline.

Food and Medicine $3,200

Martin Chartrand

20 Ivers Street, Brewer, ME 04412

Tel: 207-989-5860

Email: fam@foodandmedicine.org

Website: www.foodandmedicine.org

Food and Medicine's mission is to educate, organize and empower workers and our communities for economic and social justice. Funds from Haymarket will go towards a 30-person, 3-day training, titled "Race and the Social Safety Net" which will provide ongoing strategies for engagement.

Fuerza Laboral - Power of Workers (United Worker Committee, Inc) $5,200

Heiny Maldonado

127 Clay Street, Central Falls, RI 02863

Tel: 401-725-2700

Email: heiny@fuerza_laboral.org

Website: www.fuerza-laboral.org

Fuerza Laboral's mission is to end workplace exploitation in Rhode Island by building the power of workers through popular education, leadership development, and direct action organizing. Haymarket funds will support continued worker organizing.

Gardening the Community $9,000

Anne Richmond

PO Box 90774, Springfield, MA 01139

Tel: 413-736-5136

Email: annegtcspringfield@gmail.com

Website: www.gardeningthecommunity.org

Gardening the Community is a food justice organization engaged in youth development, urban agricultural, and sustainable living to build healthier and equitable communities. They envision a vibrant, healthy food system with just and equal access – a system that recognizes and addresses inequity, so racism no longer determines the health or well-being of a neighborhood or community. Haymarket funds will support general operating needs.

Gedakina, Inc Rick Pouliot 285 Shutesbury Road, Leverett, MA 01054 Tel: 413-549-1320 Email: rickpouliot@gedakina.org Website: www.Gedakina.org Gedakina is a region-wide organization working with Native American youth, women and families from rural, urban and reservation communities in Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont. Our goal is to develop new ways of reaching our constituency, rooted in traditional cultural teachings and values, which will provide our people with the skills and resources to better navigate the challenges they face in a changing landscape. Funding from Haymarket will support their women and girl community-based and regional organizing efforts.	$9,000	Mass Global Action Suren Moodliar 9 Hamilton Place, Suite 2A, Boston, MA 02108 Tel: 617-968-0880 Email: suren@massglobalaction.org Website: www.massglobalaction.org Mass. Global Action is a multi-issue organization that focuses on both direct organizing and movement support work. They promote an opposition to privatization and to building a new society based on human dignity and respect for our planet. Funding from Haymarket will support their efforts on water justice through a racial and class lens in the City of Boston.	$3,200
Greater Four Corners Action Coalition, Incorporated $9,000 Marvin Martin 367 Washington Street, Dorchester, MA 02124-1125 Tel: 617-436-0289 Email: gfcac@hotmail.com Website: www.gfcac.org The mission of the Greater Four Corners Action Coalition is to promote neighborhood stabilization in the Four Corners community. We accomplish this by addressing the issues of crime and safety, through organizing residents, providing positive opportunities for youth, promoting economic development and collaborating with others. Funding from Haymarket will support their continued fight for transit equity and housing stabilization.	$9,000	Metrowest Worker Center/Casa do Trabalhador/ Casa del Trabajador $3,200 Diego Low 116 Concord Street #5, Framingham, MA 01702 Tel: 508-532-0575 Email: metrowest.worker.center@gmail.com Website: www.mwccasa.org Metrowest Worker Center is a multilingual, multi-ethnic organization of immigrant workers who organize collectively to fight wage theft, workplace abuses, anti-immigrant policies and racism. Funding from Haymarket will support continued general operations.	$3,200
Homes for Families $3,200 Libby Hayes 14 Beacon Street, Suite 615, Boston, MA 02108-3704 Tel: 617-227-4188 Email: lhayes@homesforfamilies.org Website: www.homeforfamilies.org Homes for Families is a statewide advocacy organization committed to ending family homelessness through permanent and emerging solutions. Through a cohort of families who have experienced homelessness, service providers, and advocates they educate, organize, and advocate for improved public policies. They seek to address the root cause of family homelessness with holistic and community-based solutions. Haymarket funds will provide assistance for general operating needs.	$3,200	Migrant Justice/Justicia Migrante $9,000 Brendan O'Neil 294 North Winooski Ave, Suite 130, Burlington, VT 05401 Tel: 802-658-6770 Email: info@migrantjustice.net Website: www.migrantjustice.net Migrant Justice builds the voice, capacity and power of the migrant farm worker community and engages allies to organize for economic justice and human rights. Through Migrant Justice, migrant farm workers are building leadership, community power, and organizing capacity and achieving concrete victories including one of the best Bias-Free Policies in the country, winning over $10,000 in stolen wages, and building momentum to win access to driver's licenses regardless of immigration status. Haymarket funds will support general operational needs.	$9,000
Lewiston-Auburn Neighborhood Network $3,200 Gure Ali PO Box 351, Auburn, ME 04210 Tel: 207-344-7466 Email: aligur49@gmail.com Lewiston-Auburn Neighborhood Network's (LANN) mission is to facilitate collaborative networks for personal and community empowerment in order to celebrate, protect, conserve, restore and/or improve the quality of life in the neighborhoods of Lewiston and Auburn Maine. Haymarket funds will support rebuilding capacity and the strength of the board to face all forms of oppression against Somali immigrants living and working in the cities.	$3,200	New American Africans $5,200 Honore Murenzi 4 Park Street, Suite 215, Concord, NH 03301 Tel: 603-552-5240 Email: manzi27@yahoo.fr The mission of New American Africans is to strengthen and sustain immigrants by gathering for mutual support and education, promoting leadership development and sharing values and culture that will enrich the broader community. Funding from Haymarket will support the New American Africans After-School Program, which is are designed to promote school success and leadership development of African youth so as to foster African-led movement for justice and well-being in New Hampshire.	$5,200

New Hampshire Black Women Health Project $3,200

Brenda Lett

350 E. High Street, Manchester, NH 03104

Tel: 603-264-2874 Email: nhbwhp@gmail.com

The mission of New Hampshire Black Women's Health Project (NHBWHP) is to strengthen emotional, physical and spiritual relationships within the Black community, while concentrating on mental health to balance responsibilities unique to being Black women. Funding from Haymarket will strengthen their coalition and organize efforts to unify African communities across New Hampshire.

North Shore Workers Fund (New Lynn Coalition) $5,200

Carly McClain

112 Exchange Street, Lynn, MA 01901

Tel: 781-595-2538 Email: newlynnnorg@gmail.com

Website: www.newlynncoalition.org

The New Lynn Coalition's mission is to organize all sectors of working class people in our region into a unified, permanent, political, and economic force that is union and non-union, that transcends racial, linguistic, ethnic, citizenship, and gender barriers. Haymarket funds will support the New Lynn Coalition's transformation of neighborhoods through strategic campaigns, leadership development, and education.

Olneyville Neighborhood Association $9,000

Susan Beaty

122 Manton Ave, Box 8, Providence, RI 02909

Tel: 401-228-8996 Email: onaprovidence@gmail.com

Website: www.oneprovidence.org

Olneyville Neighborhood Association's (ONA) mission is to organize low income, immigrants and communities of color in Olneyville in order to create a diverse, grassroots-led democratic and non-partisan political movement that wins economic, social and political justice. Funds from Haymarket will support their system of leadership development and membership, strengthen the Red de Defensa (Community Defense Network) emergency hotline, and grow their direct action campaigns in Rhode Island.

Peace and Justice Center $5,200

Kyle Silliman-Smith

60 Lake Street, Suite 1-C, Burlington, VT 05401

Tel: 802-863-2345 Email: kyle@pjcv.org

Website: www.pjcv.org

The Peace and Justice Center is a Vermont-based non-profit, membership organization with the mission of creating a just a peaceful world. They work on the interconnected issues of economic and racial justice, peace, and human rights through education, advocacy, training, non-violent activism, and community organizing. The funds from Haymarket will support their "We Can Work Together" initiative, a coalition of grassroots organizations working to fight institutional racism which offers workshops to city employees, teachers, and the general public on white privilege, cultural competency, and the importance of diversity.

Press Pass TV$5,200

Cara Lisa Berg Powers

565 Boylston Street, 5th Floor, Boston, MA 02116

Tel: 617-288-4917 Email: cara@presspasstv.org

Website: www.presspasstv.org

Press Pass TV is an award-winning organization that uses the power of media arts to provide meaningful education and employment for youth living in underserved neighborhoods. We offer creative outlets as an alternative to violence, teach life-sustaining skills, and empower communities to find shared solutions and envision a better world. Funding from Haymarket will support general operating for movement building and leadership development.

Prison Birth Project$5,200

Lisa Andrews

PO Box 1253, Northampton, MA 01060

Tel: 413-559-7296

Email: lisa@theprisonbirthproject.org

Website: www.theprisonbirthproject.org

The Prison Birth Project (PBP) is an organization focused on reproductive justice, working to provide support, education, and advocacy to women and girls at the intersection of the criminal justice system and motherhood. PBP trains marginalized women to become leaders in the reproductive justice movement. Their programs are rooted in an anti-oppression curriculum and are part of a strategy for long-term personal, systemic, political change. Haymarket funds will provide for general operational support.

Project Hip Hop$9,000

Mariama White-Hammond

2181 Washington Street, Suite 315, Roxbury, MA 02119

Tel: 617-427-7952 Email: mariama@projecthiphop.org

Website: www.projecthiphop.org

Project HIP-HOP (Highways Into the Past-History, Organizing, & Power) is a youth-led organization. Hip hop culture and the history of resistance to injustice are our primary tools for engaging and developing young people as activists and organizers. Project HIP-HOP's main goal is to be the cultural organizing wing of the social justice movement. They teach young people to use arts and culture to both attack the ideological assumption underneath oppression and to create arts and culture products which support the larger movement.

Providence Student Union$3,200

Aaron Regunberg

407 Smith Street #2, Providence, RI 02908

Tel: 847-809-6039 Email: aaron.regunberg@gmail.com

Website: www.facebook.com/ProvidenceStudentUnion

The Providence Student Union is a school-based, direct action organizing program working to build the collective power of students across Providence to ensure that youth have a fair say in the decisions affecting their education. Funding from Haymarket will be used to establish a youth-led Providence Student Union chapter at Mount Pleasant High School with two specific goals: to bring students together to strengthen student voice and organize for the changes, and to add capacity to the Providence Student Union to engage in larger campaigns at the district or state level.

Providence Youth Student Movement $5,200

Chanravy Proeung
669 Elmwood Ave, Suite B-7, Box # 19
Providence, RI 02907
Tel: 401-383-7450 Email: chanravy@prysm.us
Website: www.prysm.us
The mission of Providence Youth Student Movement is to mobilize Southeast Asian youth in community organizing campaigns which foster the process of healing and dialogue, build support and love for those who are isolated and marginalized, and build power in the Southeast Asian community. Funding from Haymarket will provide for general operational support.

RI Jobs with Justice $3,200

Jesse Strecker
280 Broadway, Suite 201, Providence, RI 02903
Tel: 401-454-4766 Email: rijobswithjustice@gmail.com
Website: www.jwj.org
Rhode Island Jobs with Justice is a broad coalition of labor, community, faith-based, and student organizations who work together to win concrete victories on the road to achieving economic justice and lasting social change. Haymarket funds will be used for a campaign to ensure adequate enforcement of new wage theft laws and developing a fight to the campaign to tax the wealthiest of Rhode Islanders.

Somali Bantu Community Mutual Assistance Association of Lewiston/Auburn Maine $5,200

Muhidin Libah
145 Lisbon Street, Suite 506, Lewiston, ME 04240
Tel: 207-784-5556 Email: sheikhdiney@hotmail.com
Website: www.sbcmala.org
Somali Bantu Community Mutual Assistance Association of Lewiston/Auburn is a 501(C)3 non-profit organization whose primary goal is to assist the Somali Bantu Community and the Lewiston refugee community at large on housing, employment, literacy and education, health and safety matter, thereby empowering families to initiate and personal and social change. Haymarket funding will go towards general operational support.

Somali Bantu Community of Springfield, Inc $5,200

Salah Birkan
1145 Main Street, Suite 4th Floor, Room 408
Springfield, MA 01103
Tel: 413-285-7522 Email: salahbirkan@yahoo.com
Website: www.somalibantuspfma.org
Somali Bantu Community of Springfield is committed to the effective integration of Somali Bantu and other refugee communities through the provision of social program, economic, education, case manager, and culture program opportunity in order to promote self-sufficiency. Haymarket funding will go towards providing services to develop the member to promote English literacy and the awareness of American culture as well as encouragement of self-sufficiency within and among the individuals and families comprising the Somali Bantu Community.

Somali Bantu Youth Association of Maine $9,000

Fatuma Mohamed
P.O. Box 7149, Lewiston, ME 04243
Tel: 207-240-8241
Email: fatumamohamed89@yahoo.com
Website: www.sbyam.org
Somali Bantu Youth Association of Maine's mission is to reduce the current factors affecting the Somali Bantu youths. Haymarket funds will support education of parents and youth and general operational needs.

Springfield No One Leaves / Nadie Se Mude $5,200

Malcolm Chu
29 Oakland Street, Springfield, MA 01108
Tel: 718-666-6872
Email: malcolm@springfieldnooneleaves.org
Website: www.springfieldnooneleaves.org
Springfield No One Leaves / Nadie Se Mude's (SNOL/NSM) mission is to organize Springfield residents to stop evictions and displacement stemming from the record number of foreclosures in the city. They emphasize organization of those most impacted; namely women, people of color, and working-class and low-income people. They provide leadership development, member empowerment, and education on ways to effectively cultivate community support. Haymarket funding will help support general operations.

Student Immigrant Movement $9,000

Renata Teodoro
9B Hamilton Place, Suite 2A, Boston, MA 02108
Tel: 774-240-5647 Email: rbteodoro@simforus.com
Website: www.simforus.com
The Student Immigrant Movement is a statewide immigrant youth led organization based in Massachusetts. They identify, recruit, and develop leaders in local cities and towns who are invested in improving their communities through building relationships, leadership development, electoral organizing, and using both strategic and motivational campaigns that build movement. Funds from Haymarket will be used for general operational support.

Teach Our Children $3,200

Camelle Scott-Mujahid
129 Church Street, Suite 207, New Haven, CT 06510
Tel: 203-786-5499 Email: camelle@teachourchildren.org
Website: www.teachourchildren.org
Teach Our Children's mission is to ensure that parents and students are truly involved in education policy and decision-making, and rightfully acknowledged as critical participants in the success of the school system. In response to widespread issues with communication, bullying, and fighting on school buses, and sanitation and health of school food, Teach Our Children and Youth Unleashed is organizing for immediate improvements and a school health and safety oversight committee. Funds received from Haymarket will go towards establishing this committee.

Teacher Activist Group Boston $3,200

Ross Kochman
6 Oakdale Street #3, Jamaica Plain, MA 02130
Tel: 617-678-7122 Email: rosskoch@gmail.com
Website: www.tagboston.org
Teacher Activist Group (TAG) Boston is a grassroots teacher organizing group made up of Boston and Boston area teachers. Together, they engage in shared political education and relationship building in order to work for educational justice both nationally and in our local communities. TAG believes that education is essential to the preservation of civil and human rights and is a tool of human liberation.

The Genki Spark $3,200

Karen Young
198 South Street, #3, Jamaica Plain, MA 02130
Tel: 617-308-4900 Email: karen@thegenkispark.org
Website: www.TheGenkiSpark.org
The Genki Spark is an all-ages women's performance troupe that promotes the voice and visibility of Asian women while advocating respect for all. Utilizing the art of Japanese Taiko drumming, spoken word, martial arts, humor, and personal stories as vehicles, The Genki Spark aims to build a sisterhood and develop progressive leaders. By modeling a sense of cultural pride and bringing visibility to often invisible issues that affect our community, they aim to inspire others to reclaim pride in their identity and insist on a world where no one is mistreated or undervalued for being who they are. Haymarket funds will be used for start-up costs.

Unidad Latina en Accion $9,000

John Jairo Lugo
37 Howe Street, New Haven, CT 06511
Tel: 203-606-3484 Email: ulaccion@yahoo.com
Website: www.facebook.com/ULAnewhaven
Unidad Latina en Accion (ULA) is a grassroots organization whose mission is to build power among immigrants and people of color in New Haven and challenge human rights abuses through direct action organizing, education, and social justice media. Their direct action campaigns focus on justice for exploited workers and fair treatment of people of color by police and immigration authorities. Our education campaigns consist of "know your rights" trainings, analyzing the root causes of oppression, and dialogue between the African American and Latino communities. Haymarket funds will be used to continue current work and fight for immigration reform.

Vermont Anti-Racism Action Team $9,000

Paij Wadley Bailey
P O Box 714, Montpelier, VT 05602
Tel: 1-866-x-racism Email: paijforpeace@myfairpoint.net
Vermont Anti-Racism Action Team (VARAT) is a feminist, radical, volunteer, racial justice organization, addressing social justice issues in Vermont communities. VARAT empowers participants through trainings, workshops, self-advocacy training, teaching community organizing skills, sharing information and human resources. Haymarket funds will be used for general operating support.

Voices of Liberation $9,000

Jacob Leidolf
72 Jamaica Street, Jamaica Plain, MA 02130
Tel: 617-435-2890 Email: jaocbrats@gmail.com
Website: www.voicesofliberation.org
Voices of Liberation (VOL) is a community based organization dedicated to empowering youth to change their lives and the conditions of their communities through education, coalition building, organizing and direct action. Haymarket funds will be used for general operating support.

Women's Institute for Leadership Development $9,000

Kathleen Casavant
152 Mt. Vernon Street, 2nd Floor, Boston, MA 02125
Tel: 617-825-0520 Email: kathy@wildlabor.org
Website: www.wildlabor.org
Women's Institute for Leadership Development (LILD) is a multi-racial, multi-cultural women's organization that empowers women to become effective leaders in their workplaces, communities and the Massachusetts labor movement. Haymarket funding will be used to support development of leadership of diverse union and community activists through their Summer Institute, 2013 initiatives, and related programs.

Youth Jobs Coalition – Boston $9,000

Tara Venkatraman
614 Columbia Road, Dorchester, MA 02125
Tel: 617-822-3075 Email: tara@thecityschool.org
The mission of the Youth Jobs Coalition-Boston is: (1) to develop young people as leaders, organizers and decision-makers around issues that affect them, (2) to organize for increased funding for youth jobs, both summer and school year in Boston, and (3) to develop and organize around multi-issue platform for youth justice in the city. They aim to unite youth, adult allies and youth organizations across the city, especially grassroots groups committed to building youth power. Youth Jobs Coalition-Boston is committed to being directed by young people's leadership and decision making, maintaining a commitment to racial, gender, economic and queer justice, building a base of youth organizations across the city, and creating campaigns for youth justice. Haymarket's funding will support this work.